2. Subject of the concession, nature and scope of the concession activity, place of performance of the concession activity and term of the concession:

Subject of the project of Public-private partnership with elements of a concession, that is, the Concession Act (hereinafter: Concession Act) is GRANTING THE PROVISION OF THE MUNICIPAL ACTIVITY OF URBAN AND SUBURBAN PASSENGER TRANSPORTATION SERVICE WITHIN TRSTENIK MUNICIPAL LIMITS.

The intention of the Grantor is to award and enter into contract on public-private partnership with elements of the concession, that is, the Concession Contract, with the successful bidder as a Private Partner (hereinafter: Concessionaire) FOR GRANTING THE PROVISION OF THE MUNICIPAL ACTIVITY OF URBAN AND SUBURBAN PASSENGER TRANSPORTATION SERVICE WITHIN TRSTENIK MUNICIPAL LIMITS (hereinafter: Contract)

The Concession activity is GRANTING THE PROVISION OF THE MUNICIPAL ACTIVITY OF URBAN AND SUBURBAN PASSENGER TRANSPORTATION SERVICE WITHIN TRSTENIK MUNICIPAL LIMITS in accordance with the Law on Public-Private Partnership and Concessions (hereinafter: Concession Activity), to the extent and under the conditions provided for in the Model Concession Agreement, which is an integral part of the tender documents.

The Concessionaire is granted a concession to perform the Concession activity for a period of 10 years from the date of conclusion of the Contract, whereby the Concessionaire bears the risk related to the commercial use of the subject of the concession. The Grantor does not guarantee in any case that the Concessionaire will, under normal operating conditions, directly or indirectly, recover the invested funds or costs incurred in performing the Concession activity, nor will it be liable for any damage that may arise for the Concessionaire on this basis.

Within the framework of the concession, it is envisaged that the Concessionaire shall travel 778.000 km per year within the Trstenik Municipality limits with municipal settlements.

Detailed information on real estate and movable property is provided in the annexes, which are the integral part of the tender documents.

The Concessionaire shall be obliged to have appropriate personnel for the entire term of the Contract, in accordance with applicable regulations and the Labor Law, to comply with all applicable regulations concerning employees, as well as to obtain all necessary permits and other licenses, certificates, etc., in order to perform the Concession activity.

The concession activity shall be carried out within the Trstenik municipal limits and in populated areas within the Trstenik municipal limits.

In order to enable the permanent and uninterrupted performance of the Concession Activity, the Concessionaire undertakes to carry out the Concession Activity for the entire term of the Contract.

The Concessionaire shall be obliged to submit a business report to the Public Partner each year by March 31 for the previous calendar year.

The Concessionaire shall be obliged to establish and maintain high level professional quality of service in the performance of the Concession activity during the term of the Contract, in accordance with the applicable regulations governing the Concession activity in the interest of all citizens within the Trstenik municipal limits and service users.

The Concessionaire has the right to propose changes to the ticket price.

The Concessionaire has the right to propose changes to the contract in accordance with the Law on Public-Private Partnership and Concessions.

The basic principles of performing the Concession activity and the goals sought to be achieved by concluding the Contract are: achieving and protecting the public interest in the form of ensuring the continuous and efficient performance of the Concession activity by the Concessionaire, transferring market and operational risk to the Concessionaire, establishing a profitable, efficient, and adequately organized business and management system, in accordance with the provisions of the Contract and the regulations governing this matter.

The Grantor shall be obliged to pay the established concession fee for performing the Concession activity in accordance with the Contract. The method and terms of payment shall be defined by the Contract, in accordance with the successful Concessionaire's bid.

The offered value of the concession fee shall be expressed in dinars.

Bid of the bidder who offers a higher concession fee of 86,355,000.00, RSD without VAT. (778.000 km x 111,00 RSD), i.e. 95.000.000,00, RSD with VAT. (778.000 km x 122,10 RSD), will be rejected as inadmissible.

In the event that there are two or more bids with the same amount of concession fee, the bidder who has a shorter distance of the bus stop/parking lot and service in the sum of the Contracting Authority's seats will be selected as the most advantageous. If two or more bids have the same cumulative distance from the Contracting Authority's seat, the bid of the bidder that has a shorter distance from the Contracting Authority's seat shall be selected.

The Grantor will send a written invitation to bidders who place equal bids according to all previously determined criteria to attend the procedure for selecting the most advantageous bid and awarding the Contract by drawing lots. The drawing of lots will include only those bids that are the most advantageous after ranking based on the contract award criteria and backup criteria.

The drawing of lots will be carried out publicly at the premises of the Grantor, Trstenik Municipality, 5 Kneginje Milice St. 37240 Trstenik. The procedure will be conducted by the Expert Team of the Trstenik Municipality.

The Expert Team of the Trstenik Municipality will keep a record of the procedure for awarding the Contract by drawing lots. The Expert Team of the Trstenik Municipality will provide technical conditions for conducting the procedure for selecting the most advantageous bid by drawing lots. The drawing of lots will be carried out publicly, in the presence of the bidders, by writing the names of the bidders on separate sheets of paper of the same size and color, and placing all the sheets in a box from which only one sheet will be drawn first. The bidder whose name appears on the drawn paper will be awarded the Contract. The same criteria shall be applied accordingly to the ranking of the bids of other bidders. The Grantor shall provide the record of the drawing of lots to bidders who do not attend this procedure.

6. Date of delivery of the notification of the outcome of the procedure:

The deadline for making a decision on the selection of the most advantageous bid, or the decision to annul the concession award procedure is 60 (sixty) days from the date of expiry of the deadline for placing the bids.

7. Name and address of the body responsible for resolving requests for protection of rights and information on deadlines for their submission:

The procedure for protecting the rights of bidders is regulated by the provisions of Articles 204 – 236 of the Public Procurement Law (hereinafter: the PPL).

A request for protection of rights may be lodged by a business entity, candidate, or bidder who had or has an interest in the award of a specific contract, or framework agreement, or an interested party who has an interest in the award of a contract in a specific procedure and who has suffered damage or could suffer damage due to the actions of the Grantor contrary to the provisions of the Law on Public-Private Partnership and Concessions (hereinafter: the applicant).

A request for protection of rights may be lodged in the public interest by the Public Procurement Office, the National Audit Office, and the competent Attorney General's Office. The aforementioned authorities and organizations are not obliged to lodge a request for the protection of rights at the request of a bidder, or an interested party who has an interest in the award of a contract in a specific procedure and who has suffered damage or could suffer damage due to the actions of the Grantor contrary to the provisions of the Law on Public-Private Partnership and Concessions, if that person has not exercised the right to submit a request.

The request for protection of rights is lodged with the Grantor, and a copy is simultaneously delivered to the Republic Commission for the Protection of Rights in Public Procurement Procedures (hereinafter: the Republic Commission).

The request for protection of rights is lodged electronically via the Public Procurement Portal simultaneously with the Contracting Authority and the Republic Commission, whereby the date of lodging via the Public Procurement Portal is considered the date of receipt. A request for protection of rights may be filed during the entire concession granting procedure, against any action of the Grantor, unless otherwise provided for by the Public Procurement Law and the Law on Public-Private Partnership and Concessions.

A request for protection of rights that challenges the type of procedure, the content of the public call and the tender documents shall be considered timely if it is received by the Grantor no later than three days before the expiry of the deadline for placing the bids, regardless of the method of submission. A request for protection of rights may not challenge the determination of the type of procedure, the content of the public call and the tender documents, if the subject of the challenge is possible shortcomings and irregularities that were not previously pointed out to the Grantor in the manner provided for in Article 97 of the Public Procurement Law.

A request for protection of rights challenging the actions of the Grantor taken after the expiry of the deadline for placing the bids or applications shall be lodged within ten days from the date of publication of the Grantor's decision on the Public Procurement Portal, or from the date of receipt of the decision in cases where publication on the Public Procurement Portal is not provided for by the Public Procurement Law.

A request for protection of rights may not challenge the actions of the Grantor taken in a public procurement procedure if the applicant did or could have known the reasons for its lodging before the expiry of the deadline for lodging a request referred to in Article 214, paragraphs 2-4 of the Public Procurement Law, and the applicant did not lodge it before the expiry of that deadline.

If a request for protection of rights is lodged again in the same procedure by the same applicant, the request may not challenge the actions of the Grantor of which the applicant knew or could have known when lodging the previous request.

Lodging a request for protection of rights suspends the continuation of the public procurement procedure by the Grantor until the completion of the rights protection procedure.

The Grantor shall publish a notice of the lodged request for protection of rights on the Public Procurement Portal and on its website no later than the day following the date of receipt of the request for protection of rights.

The request for protection of rights shall contain:

- 1) the name and address of the applicant and the contact person;
- 2) the name and address of the Grantor;
- 3) information on the concession that is the subject of the request, i.e. the decision of the Grantor;
- 4) violations of regulations;
- 5) facts and evidence of violations of regulations referred to in Article 204, Paragraph 1, of the Public Procurement Law;
- 6) signature of the applicant.

If the lodged request for protection of rights is not accompanied by proof that the fee referred to in Article 225 of the Public Procurement Law has been paid, the Grantor shall reject such request by its decision without prior invitation to the applicant to supplement the request. If the request for protection of rights does not contain the content referred to in Article 217, paragraph 1 of the Public Procurement Law, so that further proceedings are therefore impossible, the Grantor shall without delay invite the applicant to supplement the request for protection of rights within three working days, on which occasion it shall indicate to the applicant how he is obliged to act in order to eliminate the identified deficiencies and what the consequences of the omission are.

The Grantor shall reject the request for protection of rights by decision if it is filed by a person who does not have active identification or if it is filed untimely, as well as if the applicant fails to act within the deadline referred to in Article 219, paragraph 2, of the Public Procurement Law, or if he fails to supplement the request for protection of rights in accordance with the invitation for supplementation.

Against the decision referred to in Article 219, paragraphs 3-6, of the Public Procurement Law, the applicant may, within three days from the date of receipt of the decision, file an appeal with the Republic Commission. The appeal shall be filed electronically via the Public Procurement Portal simultaneously to the Republic Commission for Protection of Rights and the Grantor, with the date of filing via the Public Procurement Portal being considered the date of receipt.

After receiving a copy of the appeal, the Grantor shall, within three days, submit to the Republic Commission the necessary documentation from the procurement procedure for the purpose of deciding on the appeal.

The concession is granted in accordance with Articles 35-41 of the Law on Public-Private Partnership and Concessions and is not implemented in phases.

8. The procedure is implemented without pre-qualification

9. Financial security for the seriousness of the bid

The bidder is obliged to submit a financial security for the seriousness of the bid in the form of a Bank Guarantee for the seriousness of the bid in the amount of 1,000,000.00 RSD of the estimated value excluding VAT in order to protect the Grantor from:

- a) the risk of the bidder withdrawing from the placed bid, and
- b) the risk of failure to submit the Performance Bond for the fulfillment of obligations from the concession award procedure.

The bank guarantee for the seriousness of the bid must be issued as irrevocable, unconditional, renewable, payable on first call and without the right to object, to the Grantor as obligee, and be valid for at least 30 (thirty) days beyond the date of expiration of the bid validity period. The Grantor will realize the bank guarantee for the seriousness of the bid if the bidder withdraws, revokes or modifies its bid after the expiration of the bid submission deadline. A bidder who accepts the request for an extension of the bid validity period must also extend the validity period of the bank guarantee.

The bank guarantee for the seriousness of the bid, if not used, will be returned to the bidder no later than 10 days from the date of the decision to select the most favorable bid, i.e. the decision to annul the concession award procedure.

In the event that the bidder does not submit the required financial security for the seriousness of the bid, its bid will be rejected due to material deficiencies.

10. Acquiring the Bidding Documents

Any interested party may acquire the bidding documents and their attachments, paying a fee of 50.000,00 RSD to the bank account of the Trstenik Municipality, number: 840-742351843-94 opened with the Treasury Administration, with a mandatory call to the number model 97, 49-

10307592, by submitting a photocopy of the receipt of payment of the fee for acquiring the documentation and a request for acquiring the tender documents to the following address: Municipal Administration of the Municipality of Trstenik - Public Procurement Service, Trstenik, 5 Kneginje Milice St. 37240 Trstenik, Rm No. 36 or to the e-mail: javne.nabavke@trstenik.rs with the following indication: "Request for acquiring the tender documents in the concession award procedure (public call reference code: 1/2026)". The request must state how the interested party wishes the Tender Documents and their attachments to be delivered (by post, by collecting in person or via e-mail). Along with the request and a photocopy of the payment, it is necessary to enclose a signed Confidentiality Agreement on the Protection of Secrets and Confidential Data in two original copies and an extract from the register of the competent authority, not older than 30 days, which shows the data on the legal representative if the same is the signatory of the agreement. If the agreement was signed by a person who is not the legal representative, it is necessary to submit an authorization or power of attorney for that person. If the original documents are in a foreign language, a translation into Serbian language certified by a certified court translator must be submitted along with the original. The draft Confidentiality Agreement on the Protection of Secrets and Confidential Data can be downloaded from the Grantor's website www.trstenik.rs. The Grantor will deliver the Tender Documents to the interested party no later than three working days from the date of receipt of the completed application.

The public call is published in accordance with Article 22 of the Law on Public-Private Partnership and Concessions.

The public call was published in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Serbia, No. 19/2026, on February 27, 2026.
